

Etiquette East Texas Saying "No Thank You" to Bad Manners!

DESCRIPTION: Etiquette is code of behavior based on kindness and consideration. You can become a better friend, courteous guest and a thoughtful hostess by learning the various forms of etiquette. Students DISCOVER practicing good manners should be a way of life and an important and PRACTICAL LIFE SKILL. Poise and self-confidence help young people feel good about themselves and CONNECT with others. The workshop is very HANDS-ON and interactive. Saying "No Thank You" to bad manners empowers girls to TAKE ACTION enabling them to make positive changes in themselves and those around them. For Girl Scout Daisies and Brownies earning the Daisy Petal or Brownie Try-It.
