What Daisies Do

Daisies learn they can care for animals and themselves and to protect Earth’s treasures.

As a Daisy (Grades K-1), she might:

⭐ Gain new friends as part of a troop

🌹 Earn petals (the special Daisy version of badges earned by older Girl Scouts) as she embraces the Girl Scout Promise and Law

🏛 Make a difference in her community through a Leadership Journey

🍪 Sell cookies (and have fun doing it)

🔍 Explore nature and the outdoors and participate in her first troop camp or day/twilight camp experience

What Brownies Do

Girl Scout Brownies are ready to take on the world, and Girl Scouts encourages them to just that! They want to explore the world, meet new people, and do something big that makes them feel great!

As a Brownie (Grades 2-3), she might:

☆ Expand her circle of friends in a troop

☽ Have fun learning all kinds of new skills as she earns badges

🏛 Do a project that makes a difference in her community (and beyond) as part of a Girl Scout Leadership Journey

🍜 Bond with her friends as she sells cookies and learns valuable money management skills

🔍 Explore nature and the outdoors as she attends her first summer resident/overnight camp

What Juniors Do

Juniors learn that leaders need power – their own, their team’s and their community’s. They realize their opportunities in life are limitless. They learn to take risks and build their confidence by trying challenging experiences. Not to mention, they are change makers, big-idea thinkers, and future leaders.

As a Junior (Grades 4-5), she might:

- Share stories (and smiles) with new friends in her troop
- Try new experiences and learn new skills as she earns badges
- Sell cookies (and have fun doing it) by learning to run her own business
- Explore the outdoors at camp and beyond
- Choose an issue she cares about, then do something to make a difference as part of a Girl Scout Leadership Journey

Serve as a Junior Aide – a Junior Girl Scout who acts as a leader by helping Brownie Girl Scouts bridge to the next level.

Earn her Bronze Award, the highest award a Girl Scout Junior can achieve in recognition for service to her community. Projects are selected by the girls and completed as a team.

As a Cadette (Grades 6-8), she might:

Choose an issue she cares about, then do something to make a difference as part of a Girl Scout Leadership Journey

Earn her Silver Award, the highest award a Cadette can earn. This award gives girls a chance to do big things and make her community better in the process. Girls may develop their projects individually or as a team.

Get outdoors and off the beaten trail

Try out new experiences (and learn new skills) as she earns badges

Gain confidence as she mentors younger Girl Scouts (and earns her Leadership in Action award in the process)
What Seniors Do

Girl Scout Seniors are ready to take the world by storm—and Girl Scouts will give them millions of ways to do it.

As a Senior (Grades 9-10), she might:

✈️ Go on an adventure and travel to amazing places like Costa Rica, Japan, or India through the Destinations program or Girl Scouts of Northeast Texas council-hosted travel adventures

💖 Be a positive role model, mentor younger girls, develop better friendships, and help fight bullying

👣 Join together to tackle an important international issue and earn a Global Action Award

🚀 Explore exciting careers in a variety of fields—from science to the arts to education to government

Seniors can earn their Gold Award, which adds that “little something extra” to college and scholarship applications. The Gold Award is open only to girls in high school. This prestigious award challenges girls to change the world—or at least their corner of it. By the time girls put the final touches on their seven-step project, she’ll have solved a community problem—not only in the short term, but for years into the future.

As an Ambassador (Grades 11-12), she might:

- Implement a Take Action project and become eligible for college scholarships
- Travel internationally
- Work with younger Girl Scouts to build a rain garden, learn about nature, and help protect the environment
- Enhance her relationship skills, problem-solving abilities, and knowledge of science and technology

Oh, and did we mention Ambassadors can earn the prestigious Gold Award—the highest award available to Girl Scouts? She could even apply for scholarships or be recognized as one of the National Young Women of Distinction.

Whatever path she chooses, Ambassadors take action to make a lasting positive impact on their school, their community, their world—and themselves.
