Your Junior Year Activity Brainstorming

Welcome

Are you ready for an exciting year in Girl Scouts? Girl Scouts can do so many things and sometimes it can be hard to choose what you want to do next. Let's work together to decide on what you want to do this year!

Step 1: Choosing Activities

Here are some ideas of things you or your troop could do. Circle the ideas you like the most.

Picnic

Museum

Zoo

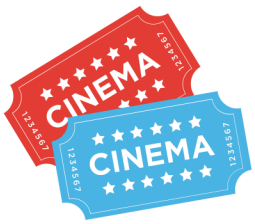

Arts & Crafts

Bowling

Arcade

Movie Night

Aquarium

Build-a-Bear

Pizza Party

What other kinds of activities would you like to do this year?

_____

_____

_____

Which activity is your favorite and why?

_____

_____

Tip #1

When planning an activity for your troop, try to think about activities that most of the Girl Scouts would enjoy.

Step 3: Make a Budget

Use the following table to calculate how much money you may need to spend on each category. To start, only fill in the estimate values with how much you think you might spend. Then, with the help of an adult, fill in the actual values based on what you can learn online.

Transportation  Estimate: $ _____ Actual: $ _____	Tickets  Estimate: $ _____ Actual: $ _____	Food  Estimate: $ _____ Actual: $ _____
Souvenirs  Estimate: $ _____ Actual: $ _____	Entertainment  Estimate: $ _____ Actual: $ _____	Total  Estimate: $ _____ Actual: $ _____

Your Junior Year Spend-Save-Share

Step 4: Spend-Save-Share

Now that you have a budget for your activity. Let's decide on how much money you want to raise total by making a spend-save-share plan.

Spend

Spending is for things you need to buy right now, or for smaller things you want. The things you want to buy for your activity fall under the spending category. What is your spending budget for this year?

Spending on: _____

_____

_____

Spending: $_____

Save

Saving is money you're setting aside for a bigger purchase. This could be saving for a camping trip next year or saving for your Bronze or Silver award. What is your desired saving budget for this year?

Saving for: _____

_____

_____

Saving: $_____

Share

Sharing is money you plan to use to help others. This could be donating money to a local animal shelter or another organization you care about. What is your desired sharing budget for this year?

Sharing with: _____

_____

_____

Sharing: $_____

_____ Spending + _____ Saving + _____ Sharing = _____ Final Budget

2 - Cookie Program Ends

Step 6: Discover Money Earning Activities

Fall Product Program

Create an avatar and sell products using a website you help create! You can earn some awesome prizes while your troop earns proceeds based on what you sell.

Cookie Program

Create a website, set up a booth, or go door-to-door! There are lots of ways to sell cookies and earn awesome prizes. Plus, your troop earns proceeds as well!

Other Options

Girl Scouts can participate in other money-earning activities as long as they do not occur during the Cookie Program and they meet other requirements as detailed in Volunteer Essentials.

Step 7: Calculate Proceeds

Now that we know a little bit about the money earning opportunities available through Girl Scouts, let's decide which program(s) you want to participate in! Please ask an adult if you need help with the math.

Example

Total: $ 300
From step 3

Your Turn

Total: $ _____
From step 3

Fall Product Program

During the Fall Product Program, your troop earns 20% of what you sell. That essentially means that for every dollar worth of product that you sell, your troop earns 20 cents!

Proceeds: $ 150	/	$0.20 per dollar sold	=	$ sold: 750
Proceeds: $ _____	/	$0.20 per dollar sold	=	$ sold: _____

Cookie Program

During the Cookie Program, your troop earns 72 cents from every package of cookies that you sell!

Proceeds: $ 150	/	$0.72 per package	=	Packages: 224
Proceeds: $ _____	/	$0.72 per package	=	Packages: _____

Step 8: Set Goals

Fall Product Goal

$ sold: _____

Cookie Program Goal

Packages: _____
